

OUR SPEAKER - DAVID GREEN

David has been pastor of the Cornerstone Church (Beverly, Mass.), a small, reformed, congregational body committed theologically to the Savoy Declaration and to the Cambridge Platform for church order, since the fall of 1986. He and the church have standing with the Conservative Congregational Christian Conference (www.cccusa.org).

David has been a part of the New England Reformed Fellowship since the late 1980s and chairman for over 10 years. This Fellowship sponsors the annual Bolton Conference in Whitinsville, Mass.

He is also moderator of the Reformed Congregational Fellowship (RCF), host of the annual Conference on the Confessions. The RCF is a group devoted to seeing more biblical, theological and confessional reformed preaching and ministry return to the Church, especially to congregational churches in New England and beyond.

He and his wife, Karen, have three children — Nathaniel, Elizabeth and Jonathan.

ABOUT THE CAMBRIDGE REFORMED CONFERENCE

The Cambridge Reformed Conference is a yearly spring conference hosted by the Reformed Presbyterian Church of Cambridge. The goal is to provide a series of preaching seminars to encourage the growth and spiritual development of Christians in our part of New England.

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us."

- Hebrews 12:1
